

Characteristics of Psychic Child

They feel other people's emotions (empath).

They have imaginary friends.

They perceive energies in different environments & may be afraid of crowded places.

They see and talk to family members who have passed on.

They report of having out-of-body experiences & have trouble sleeping.

They remember a past life or talk about memories from another time or place.

They have a close bond with animals.

They see other people's auras.

They are creative & display a great imagination.